Donate Gently Used Items to Hospice Re-sale Shoppes

(Mount Airy, NC) Mountain Valley Hospice & Palliative Care would like your 2022 New Year's resolutions to include donating clean clothing, furniture and household items to their Re-Sale Shoppes located in Mount Airy and Sparta.

In the latter part of 2021, both Re-Sale Shoppes closed temporarily for freshening and a new look. "We spruced up the stores and became more selective with inventory," said Sara Tavery, Senior Director of Philanthropy for Mountain Valley Hospice & Palliative Care. "We want our customers to enjoy shopping at our thrift boutiques where they can discover a fabulous find every time they shop."

Proceeds from our Re-Sale Shoppes help pay for hospice care and related services for uninsured and underinsured patients in our communities. Every purchase benefits hospice patients and families in need.

Re-Sale Shoppe managers kindly ask store supporters, as they declutter their closets and gather items for the store, to consider if each item is suitable for the sales floor. The store managers will not accept items that are broken, soiled, or have unpleasant odors. The expense of disposing unwanted items takes away from the stores' mission.

In addition to new and gently used items, the Re-Sale Shoppes need volunteers to sort donations, tag items, set up store displays, and assist customers. Tavery added, "We're looking for cheerful volunteers who like to put together fashion-forward outfits, create tablescapes, and interact with shoppers."

For information about donating, shopping, or volunteering at either Re-Sale Shoppe, visit mtnvalleyhospice.org or call 1-888-789-2922.
